Why Professional Garbage Chute Cleaning is a Must — and Why Brouwer Brothers Services is the Right Choice

Garbage chutes are one of the most overlooked systems in high-rise buildings, yet they are among the most critical to the health, safety, and satisfaction of your residents. Over time, chutes accumulate layers of grease, food waste, bacteria, and debris that create persistent foul odors, attract pests, and pose serious fire and health risks.

No One Cleans Garbage Chutes Like We Do — Because No One Can.

At Brouwer Brothers Services, we don't just clean garbage chutes — we redefine what clean means. Our patent-pending high-heat, high-pressure chute cleaning system reaches areas traditional methods can't, ensuring a deep, thorough clean from top to bottom — including chute doors, compactors, and dumpsters. No other company can offer this level of precision, power, and proven results. Our before-and-after photos speak for themselves.
