EXTERIOR WORK

There is no better compliment than being asked back years later to perform your work again. Depending on the circumstances, painting at a multi-unit residential complex means serving and satisfying several different groups. Guided by strict operating protocols, we have been making friends with owners, condo boards, developers, management companies and residents for the past 10 years.

Check the facts and see for yourself why Precision Painting has been so successful in serving Apartment, Condominium complexes, & HOA's. From high rises to townhomes, quality jobs, consistently completed on time is no accident. On-site procedures control environmental, safety, surface preparation, application, site cleanliness and employee behaviors.

INTERIOR WORK

A major component of our success has to do with respecting other peoples' time, property and privacy. Our crews are ready when you are, as early as tomorrow. Whether it's painting in a newly completed building, repainting in common areas, or a single residence unit, you can count on Precision Painting & Decorating to get it done with the least amount of inconvenience.

Precision has hundreds of detailed references that closely match the specific needs for projects of like size and scope to jobs like yours. We have done high profile projects for some of the most demanding customers. TRANSFORMING YOUR VISIONS INTO REALITY
